ARQUS WORKSHOP:

Teaching a service-learning course: Introduction, benefits, practical guidelines

WHEN: July 5th, 2022

ONLINE: via Zoom, 9am-4pm (CET)

Language of instruction: English

Please join us via ZOOM using this link:

https://univienna.zoom.us/j/68637901909?pwd=dkpBUGdTMXcwTVJjaVNtb3JZUjFoUT09

Meeting-ID: 686 3790 1909
Password: 646503

Topics covered in the workshop

- Introducing service-learning as a teaching method (in comparison to others)
- Types of service-learning and E-service-learning
- Benefits of service-learning for students, teachers and community partners
- Involving community partners in service-learning
- Service-learning in practice: difficulties and solutions
- Specificities of assessing service-learning courses
- Good practice examples and worksheets

Methods:

During the training, a mix of theoretical and practical inputs and participatory, interactive methods in small groups will be applied.

Trainer:

Dr. Katharina Resch, MSc

Katharina Resch is a sociologist and educational researcher at the University of Vienna, Austria; research interests: educational research and didactics, diversity, inclusion, and service-learning.

Target group:

The workshop is open for university teachers within die Arqus alliance. Teachers from the Universities of

- Bergen,
- Granada,
- Graz,
- Leipzig,
- Lyon,
- Padua,
- Minho,
- Wrocław and
- Vilnius

can register and participate in the workshop.

Registration:

The workshop is limited to 21 participants.

Principle of selection: first come, first served. A waiting list is going to be provided.

Registration is open until July 4th.

Website and registration:
https://lehr-studienservices.uni-graz.at/de/arqus-workshop-on-service-learning/

Contact information:

Elisabeth Hillebrand-Augustin

University of Graz | Department of Academic Services

Phone: +43/(0)316/380–1074

E-Mail: elisabeth.augustin@uni-graz.at | Web: https://uni-graz.at