

Welcome to the
Arqus Joint Master's Programme
European Studies
Europe as a Global Actor

2nd Call for applications 2025*

The Arqus Joint Master's Programme European Studies is a full-time master's programme which you complete over 2 years with a total of 120 ECTS credits. It brings together the expertise and academic excellence of four partner universities and is offered entirely in English. The programme focuses on the relationship between Europeanization and globalization, the impact of global developments on Europe and the changing role of the continent in the new world order. It is organized as a joint programme that allows you to benefit from a wide range of options in complementary focus areas and from a unique intercultural experience due to an international composition of students in the programme.
